

The BOC Apprentice Welder Competition 2012

The BOC Apprentice Welder competition is open to all apprentices who are following a recognised national craft qualification in welding. The competition is divided into a series of craft challenges, full details are available from the competition website.

For more information and to enter go to: www.bocweldercompuk.com

Working in partnership with the following: